Innovation in Port Skills

Watermen's Hall, 16-18 St Mary at Hill, London, EC3R 8EF

Held on Wednesday 13 September 2023 at 13:00

Agenda

Time	Item
13:00	Arrival and refreshments
13:15	1. Welcome
13:30	2. Bring port skills to life – How digital innovation can support career development and outreach Chris Hatter, Portsmouth International Port and Pablo Aguirre Babiloni, Estudio Cactus
13:55	3. Development and implementation of VR at Associated British Ports Saheed Onisemo, Associated British Ports
14:20	4. Utilising AI and statistics to optimise operative allocation, training and hiring processes Hector Camm, Ensemble Analytics
14:45	5. Break
15:00	6. Maritime accelerator update Paul Wilson, Connected Places Catapult
15:15	7. The robots are coming, look busy Laura Thomson Staveley, Phenomenal Training
15:25	8. Breakout discussion groups a) Using technology to improve and monitor careers outreach b) Using technology for recruitment and assessment and the impact on social mobility c) Using technology to increase engagement and outcomes in training d) Upskilling courses needed to future the current workforce
16:00	9. Summary and actions
16:15	10. Continue conversations with peers, speakers and see demos Demo area: Estudio Cactus, 3t Transform, Robok, Ensemble Analytics
17:00	Close